QUESTIONS YOU SHOULD ASK AN EMPLOYER WHILE INTERVIEWING

By Job Placement/Work-based Learning Staff

1. As an employee of this company, what would be the most important thing I can accomplish in the first 90 days?
2. (After qualifications have been discussed) Do you have any concerns about my being successful in this position?
3. Could you tell me about a typical day on the job?
4. Is the company committed to promotion from within, whenever possible?
5. How does the company demonstrate a sense of pride in its employees? Can you help me understand what it looks for in return?
6. What type of growth and advancement opportunities does this position and the company offer?
7. How do you see me benefiting the company?
8. When will a decision be made on the successful candidate?
9. May I contact you if I have other questions?
10. What can you tell me about your new product or plans for growth?
11. What types of skills do you NOT already have onboard that you're looking to fill with a new hire?
12. What are the next steps in the interview process?
13. Where have successful employees previously in this position progressed to within the company?

* *This list gives a general idea of what to ask an employer. Not all of these questions should be asked during an interview. It is best to pick a few questions that are appropriate for your interview. Employers like to know that you are curious about how well you will fit in with the company.
